

Mahoodle Moot 2017 programme

Date: Friday, 20th October 2017

Venue: Hughes Hall, Cambridge

9.30	Refreshments, networking
10:15	Welcome and opening remarks
10:30	Professional Development portfolios This presentation will explore the project to deliver ePortfolios as a summative assessment tool at scale in the global context of an international exam board.		Esther Chesterman Education Manager Cambridge International Examinations
11:00	New Moodle features and developments Sharing the latest Moodle developments with upcoming release of Moodle 3.4. This presentation will highlight the benefits for teachers and learners of the latest and greatest version of Moodle.		Mary Cooch Community Educator, Moodle Pty Ltd
11:20	Enhanced Analytics in Mahara An overview of enhancements to reporting capabilities for Mahara. Sharing developments to enable supporting evidence-informed use across disciplines in the future.	 	Lisa Donaldson Learning Technologist Dublin City University Antony Coombs Learning Technologies Manager, University of Sussex
	Break
11:50	TBC		Sam Taylor Learning Technologist Canfield Defence and Security, Cranfield University
12:10	Learning Tools Interoperability (LTI) Catalyst will provide a real life demonstration of LTI integration and its potential for the sharing of content or activities across varied Learning Management Systems.		Joey Murison Business Development Manager, Catalyst IT
12:30	Lunch

13:30	The Online Learning Area Overview of the development, features and use of Cambridge Online Learning Area, a Mahoodle instance to support learners and teachers.		Andrew Field eLearning Manager Cambridge International Examinations
13:50	Learner engagement through effective UX		Bea Martinez-Gatell Head of UX Cambridge Assessment
	Break
14:30	Delivering a blended learning programme for the Cambridge context Overview of the Master of Studies (MSt) in Social Innovation blended programme and discussion of the core educational and Moodle centric principles employed.		Sarah Green Judge Business School, Cambridge University
14:50	TBC		Bas Brands Freelance Webdeveloper Sonsbeekmedia
15:10	Group Activities
15:30	Closing remarks		