

Final Inclusion Conference

'Lifelong Learning for All'

20 June 2012

The ICC, Broad Street, Birmingham, B1 2EA

Programme

9.00 Registration and refreshments
Register and receive your delegate badge and pack on arrival at the entrance to Halls 9 & 10. Help yourself to tea and coffee served in the foyer area.

10.00 Plenary session, Hall 10

Welcome and Introduction

Jane Nimmo, Head of Leonardo, UK National Agency for Leonardo, Grundtvig and Transversal Programmes

Project perspectives

Paul Baron from the Bhagavat Education Trust and project beneficiaries will talk about their experience of the Leonardo project 'Living and Learning Abroad'

Tom Jones and Robert Nutt from Cerebral Palsy Midlands will be joined by beneficiaries of the Grundtvig project 'Makeable' to share their story

Key note speech

Geraldine Libreau, Unit B3 – Adult Education; Grundtvig, DG Education and Culture, European Commission, will present on social inclusion in the current Lifelong Learning Programme and the future EU education and training programme

11.00 Explore the exhibition and network with colleagues, Hall 9

Have coffee and explore the exhibition of social inclusion projects from across the Lifelong Learning Programme, Youth in Action, the European Social Fund and E-Twinning

- 11.45 Learning and Sharing Zones, Hall 10
Take part in our learning and sharing zones focused on three of the key Inclusion recommendations:
- ENGAGE: To better engage with and understand the needs of people with fewer opportunities
- COOPERATE: To support and implement improved cooperation amongst different policy areas, programmes and sectors
- COMMUNICATE: To ensure increased and effective dissemination
- 13.00 Lunch
Enjoy a buffet lunch
- 13.45 Welcome back, Hall 10
Introduction to the afternoon session
- 13.50 Project perspective
Iva Havlickova and Miloslava Spalenska from Hodina H will present their experience of the Grundtvig Senior Volunteering project 'New Horizons'
- 14.10 Question Time
Take your opportunity to put questions on social inclusion in education and training to the panel of experts in 'Question Time' moderated by Jan Aulehle, Inclusion network, Ecorys
- The panel:
- Geraldine Libreau, European Commission
- Nicola Archer, Department for Education, UK
- Ute Haller-Block, Executive Agency for Culture, Education and Audiovisual
- Belén Sánchez-Rubio, EURoma Technical Secretariat
- Clair Brown and Saira Tabasum, Everything is possible
- 15.10 Performance from Positive Steps
- 15.30 Closing remarks
- Refreshments & networking