

pearls & BOW TIES

A soirée benefiting The African SOUP

Dear Community / Corporate Leader:

On Sunday, December 4, 2016, The African SOUP will host its Second Annual "Pearls and Bow Ties" Soiree at 103 West in Atlanta, Georgia. Embracing our African roots, the event is aptly named to reflect Uganda as the "Pearl of Africa" while recognizing our corporate partner, Ugandan bow tie company "Lion's Thread." We anticipate nearly 200 guests attending this event, and all funds raised will support The African SOUP's operations in Uganda.

The African SOUP is a burgeoning educational organization that takes after the fabled "Stone Soup" story. Inspired by the initiatives and drive of the local village in which we are rooted, the SOUP exists to provide a "hand up," not a "hand out," working in tandem with the community to address its most vital needs. In the spirit of the "Stone Soup" fable, we simply provide the foundation for our programs while our community members, local and international partners, and supporters all bring something deliciously unique to the SOUP.

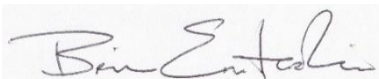

The Second Annual "Pearls and Bow Ties" Soiree is an evening of celebration, auction, and entertainment to raise funds to support The African SOUP's growth in eastern Uganda. The program will feature the SOUP's very own Country Director and Co-Founder Michael Kaidhiwa, Founder Brin Enterkin, Uhuru Dance Troupe, and live music provided by Sam Burchfield, along with an array of unique and exotic silent auction items from which to choose.

We invite you, your colleagues, and your company to join us to learn more about our mission and help us celebrate the impact that providing a quality education for a child can have on the world. By becoming an event sponsor or purchasing a program ad for "Pearls and Bow Ties," you too will be celebrating Uganda's future and supporting the children and communities impacted by The African SOUP. You will find a detailed description of all of the available opportunities enclosed.

If you have any questions about this event or sponsorship levels, please contact Holly Habimana at holly@theafricansoup.org or 303.870.3266.

On behalf of the African SOUP Board of Directors and the children and communities that we serve, thank you for the immeasurable impact of your support.

Sincerely,

Brin Enterkin
Founder and Board Chair
