

AIA Seminar - Kawneer

Provider:	Kawneer Company Inc.	Provider#:	EP304
Program Title:	Storefront vs Curtain Wall – Design Principles	Program#:	AEC597
Length:	60 mins	Credits:	1 LU/HSW

Differences between storefront and curtain wall, how they handle water, spans and thermals

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the basic difference between storefront and curtain wall
- Understand how each system handles water and considerations for use
- Introduction to the structural capabilities of each system
- Considerations for thermal performance

Chris Lambert
Title

Chris Lambert is the British Columbia Architectural Sales Representative for Kawneer Company Canada Ltd. He is a Red Seal Certified Commercial Glazier with extensive knowledge of commercial curtain wall and storefront systems. After receiving his Certification for Commercial Glazing (1992), Chris left the trade to attend BCIT where he graduated in 1994 with an Honours Diploma of Technology in Operations Management. He returned to the Glazing Industry in 1996 and spent the next ten years overseeing institutional and residential hi-rise projects. Chris returned to commercial glazing with Kawneer in 2006 and received his LEED AP certification in 2010. He resides in Port Coquitlam, BC with his wife Jennifer and two children.