

FMB Business Conference, Friday 12th May, Miramar Hotel, Bournemouth BH1 3AL.

“Brexit Uncovered: What it means for Builders”

Aimed at the thousands of small building businesses across the country, this is an opportunity for you to hear from the experts what the implications are to the construction industry as Britain prepares to exit from the European Union.

Federation of Master Builders Business Conference, Friday 12th May

9.30AM to 10AM	Registration, Tea, coffee and networking
10.00AM to 10.05AM	Welcome by Brian Berry, FMB Chief Executive
10.05AM to 10.30AM	Conor Burns, PPS to Secretary of State for BEIS Greg Clark MP and Conservative MP for Bournemouth West The Government’s industrial strategy and opportunities for construction SMEs post-Brexit
10.30AM to 11AM	Prof. Noble Francis, Economics Director, Construction Products Association Forecasts for UK growth and construction sector growth now and post-Brexit and what do SMEs need to know about materials prices?
11AM to 11.30AM	Tim Colman, Head of Procurement, Federation of Small Businesses How can we use Brexit to help SMEs win more public sector work – procurement regulations we should keep or scrap post-Brexit
11.30am to 12PM	Tea, coffee and networking
12 noon to 12.30PM	Matthew Percival, Head of Employment, CBI What immigration system should replace the free movement of people post-Brexit?
12.30PM to 1PM	Brian Berry, FMB Chief Executive What is the FMB’s business strategy 2017 to 2020
1.00PM	Close, buffet lunch and networking