

Biography

Lenny Abramowicz,
Executive Director
ACLCO

Lenny Abramowicz is the executive director of the Association of Community Legal Clinics of Ontario. He has held this position since 2000. Before that Lenny was the executive director and a staff lawyer at Neighbourhood Legal Services in downtown Toronto. Lenny articulated at Parkdale Community Legal Services, and was on the board of directors of the Industrial Accident Victims Group of Ontario community clinic for over 9 years. Lenny graduated from McGill University with an LL.B. and a B.C.L. in 1985.

Lenny is the Chair of the Alliance for Sustainable Legal Aid, the group that represents Ontario's front line legal aid service providers. He has been on the board of, and worked with numerous community based non-profit groups and has written articles on legal issues, on community clinics, and on the topic of non-profit governance.

Association of Community Legal Clinics of Ontario

Date: Thursday, May 17, 2018

Time: 4:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Presenter:

Lenny Abramowicz, Executive Director, ACLCO

Presentation for ACLCO Member Clinics:

Lenny will talk about the work of the Association regarding many of the important issues confronting clinics today. He will answer questions and hear your input about these issues.

Please note, however, that the ACLCO presentation is exclusive to ACLCO member clinics only.

Association of Community Legal Clinics of Ontario
55 University Ave, Suite 1500
Toronto, Ontario M5J 2H7
Phone: 416-847-1416 or Toll Free: 1-866-965-1416

www.aclco.org