

Biography

Dana Piilo

Dana Piilo has worked at ISC since September 2009 in various positions in the Thunder Bay business centre. She has participated in treaty payment days on remote communities and assisted with community evacuations as part of the emergency management team.

Dana has been the Sr. Estates Officer in the Brantford business centre full time since January 2015. She is responsible for living and deceased estate administration processing and supervises 3 full time employees. Dana, along with her team, present the wills and estates workshop to communities in Southern Ontario on request.

Indigenous Legal Matters: Wills and Estates

Friday, May 18, 2018 • 9:00 am - 10:30 am

Presenter:

Dana Piilo, Sr. Estates Officer, Indigenous Services Canada (ISC)

Workshop Summary:

- i. Provide general information about the importance and advantages of estate planning and Wills.
- ii. Educate on the roles/responsibilities of the ISC department in the processing of estates
- iii. Provide information and/or awareness of the procedures respecting deceased estates.
- iv. Explain the roles/responsibilities of an Administrator/Executor.

Learning Outcomes:

After participating in this session, learners will be able to:

- (i) Understand the differences between Indian Act estates and “off reserve” estates.