

TIME	ACTIVITY	FEATURING
9.45am	Registration & Networking	Coffee, sharing table, badge making
10.15am	Welcome & Celebration of Menu of Poems	Mary McCarthy, Director, Crawford Art Gallery; Claire Meaney, Acting Arts Director, WHAT; Priscilla Lynch, Head of Service, Cork Kerry Community Healthcare Health & Wellbeing
10.30am	Performance in the Medical Gaze Keynote Address	Professor Anna Furse, FRSA, director/writer, introduces ways in which she has worked in medical environments and with medical professionals to develop performance projects which have focused on the 'body spectacular' through representation of the body from Renaissance Anatomical Art to Imaging Technologies. Q&A, chaired by Ailbhe Murphy, Director, Create
11.15am	Coffee break & networking
11.30am	Sticking Points: What to do when you get stuck	Eszter Nemethi, Theatre Maker Liz Clark, Musician Jennifer O'Mahoney, Occupational Therapist Marielle MacLeman, Visual Artist Chaired by Dr Sheelagh Broderick, Executive Manager, Cork Kerry Community Healthcare Health & Wellbeing
12.15pm	Arts &amp; Health in the Workplace Two Case Studies: - TODAY - 110 Skibbereen Girls	Case studies of projects, at different stages of development, where participants are healthcare professionals. With artists Colette Lewis & Toma McCullim
1.00pm	Hearty, Not Arty, Lunch (Cork Opera House)
2.30pm	What's My Practice? Four practical workshops looking at a wide range of methodologies employed in socially engaged arts & health practice Please select your preferred workshop at registration	Workshop 1: Lonradh Experience Crawford Art Gallery's visiting programme for individuals with dementia and their carers, with artist Gillian Cussen
		Workshop 2: Sing Your Heart Out Community Choir, Niche Community Health Project With Pat Sheehan, Musical Director & Mary Byrd, Community Health Worker
		Workshop 3: Fireflies – Preparing for Transition Insights from working with young people in health- care settings and supporting their transition from child-based to adult services. With Rachel Tynan and Siobhan Clancy, Artists with Helium Arts
		Workshop 4: Tracing Autonomy: Sharing and questioning methods of practice With artist Dr Kirsty Stansfield, Creative Arts Service team, Prince & Princess of Wales Hospice, Glasgow.
3.40pm	Developments between the Arts Council and the HSE at national level	Ann O'Connor, Arts Participation Adviser, Arts Council Caroline Peppard, Project Manager, Wellbeing & Mental Health, HSE

TIME	ACTIVITY	FEATURING
4.05pm	Reflections of the Day
4.30pm	Acknowledgements	Claire Meaney
4.35pm	Break
6.00pm	Wine Reception
6.30pm	Arts & Health Film Club	A programme of short arts and health-related films, including The Second Hand of the Clock , a film by Tom Flanagan and Marielle MacLeman about the Dialysis Arts Programme at Merlin Park University Hospital, Galway, managed by Galway University Hospital Arts Trust. This film is the result of the 2017/2018 artsandhealth.ie Documentation Bursary.
7.10pm	Close

DAY 2: Friday 27 April 2018

OPTIONAL WORKSHOP DAY

Places limited, advance booking essential

10.00am-12.00 noon	Interiority: Workshop with Anna Furse	This workshop will introduce aspects of research towards Anna Furse's digital artwork I'm Not a Piece of Meat to reflect on how culture and medicine are braided historically. Places limited, booking essential, workshop fee €15.00
10.30am-1.00pm	Artsandhealth.ie Advice Clinics	With Claire Meaney, Acting Arts Director, WHAT; Maeve Butler, Acting Assistant Arts Director, WHAT; Emma Eager, Project Manager, artsandhealth.ie. These clinics are free but please pre-book with WHAT (051) 842664 / what@hse.ie

Check Up Check In 2018 is organised by www.artsandhealth.ie/Waterford Healing Arts Trust and Create, the national development agency for collaborative arts, with local partners Uillinn West Cork Arts Centre; Crawford Art Gallery; Health & Wellbeing, Cork Kerry Community Healthcare; and Niche Community Health Project.