Prof. Jing Lin

Prof. Jing Lin is Professor in International Education Policy at University of Maryland. She received her doctorate from the University of Michigan. Dr. Lin has done extensive research on peace and environmental education, spirituality, religion and education, and East/West Dialogues. She has published these books: Love, Peace and Wisdom in Education: Vision for Education in the 21st Century (2006); Educators as Peace Makers: Transforming Education for Global Peace (2008); Spirituality, Religion, and Peace Education (2010); Transformative Eco-Education for Human and Planetary Survival (2012); Re-envisioning Higher Education: Embodied Pathways to Wisdom and Social Transformation (2013); and Toward a spiritual research paradigm: Exploring new ways of knowing, researching and being (2016).

Dr. Lin's research also focuses on Chinese education and East Asian education. She has published five books and numerous articles on Chinese education, culture and society, systematically examining educational reforms and policy changes in China since 1978. Dr. Lin teaches courses on Education for Global Peace, Ecological Ethics and Education, World Religions and Implications for Education, Culture and Education in a Global Context, International Higher Education, and Modes of Inquiry.