Reflections on the payment process and payment experience under the Construction Contracts Act 2013

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Ireland Branch, will host a panel discussion to review the first 18 months of the Construction Contracts Act 2013. This is a follow on event from the hugely popular One Year Review held in July 2017.

The panel discussion will focus on the implementation of the payment process in the Act from the day to day experience of Employers, Contractors and Sub-Contractors. Has the Act been embraced? What is happening differently now?

The panel discussion and open Q&A session will commence at 6pm sharp on Wednesday 24th January 2018, in the CIF, Construction House, Canal Road, Dublin 6, preceded by tea & coffee from 5.30pm and followed a by wine and canapés reception. Our speakers and their topics:-
