

Human Trafficking Awareness Month: Community Day of Action

Sunday, January 27
1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
Suffern Community Center
41 Washington Ave, Suffern

January is Human Trafficking Awareness Month. Join Center for Safety & Change and the Village of Suffern for this free and fun community event. Take action to support victims and survivors of human trafficking by putting together “comfort kits.” Light refreshments will be served.

Items needed for comfort kits:

- Water bottle
- Granola bar
- Band-aids
- Deodorant
- Lip balm/chapstick
- Lotion
- Tissues
- Toothbrush and toothpaste
- Undergarments (all sizes)
- Leggings and sweaters (all sizes)
- Socks

Items may be brought to the event or dropped off at Center for Safety & Change before Friday, January 25. Call (845) 634-3391 to schedule a donation drop off. Monetary donations are also appreciated.
