

Phil James, P.Eng, Manager, Integrated Water Management. Many of the projects that Phil's team are involved with require overcoming barriers to successful and wide scale implementation of integrated water management strategies. This is mostly achieved through coordinated and collaborative partnerships where resources, knowledge and experiences can be shared and leveraged.