

Liberty Voices Bio

The Liberty Voices represents a world-famous eight-part a cappella group that has been performing daily for more than 25 years at Central Florida's premier tourist attraction. Sharing songs from the 'Great American Songbook', the group sings a varied repertoire from traditional Patriotic and Americana fare to folk and show songs. They have performed for six United States Presidents and toured the country as feature entertainment on national television shows and various parades. They have been called "America's PREMIER a cappella stylists... and the United States vocal ambassadors to the world!" Beyond that though, they are a group of husbands and wives, moms and dads, studio singers and music teachers, world-class entertainers, friends and co-workers who love making music together. What they sing is unique, but how they sing it is truly inspiring ...
