

The SW AHSN Annual Conference:
improving health & care in the South West

16 November 2017, Sandy Park, Exeter

09:00 – 09:30	Registration and refreshments ( Estuary Room )
09:30 – 09:45	Welcome and introductions
09:45 – 10:15	Why success always starts with failure Tim Harford, The Undercover Economist Author, columnist for the Financial Times and presenter of Radio 4's 'More or Less' ( Chiefs Suite )
10:15 – 10:45	From isolation to transformation Hazel Stuteley, Director of the Connecting Communities programme based at University of Exeter Medical School A practising health visitor for 35 years, Hazel has many years' experience delivering transformative outcomes in disadvantaged rural and urban areas. ( Chiefs Suite )
10:45 – 11:15	Refreshments available in the Marketplace ( Estuary Room )
11:15 – 12:15	Workshops and roundtables Please see the programme in your delegate pack for detailed descriptions. ( Rooms 1-18 )
12:15 – 13:15	Lunch, refreshments and networking ( Denman &amp; Best Mate Room )
13:15 – 14:15	Workshops and roundtables
14:15 – 14:45	Redesigning primary care for the future Dr Robert Varnam, Director of General Practice Development, NHS England As well as working as a GP in Manchester, Robert advises on the General Practice Forward View and STPs' role in redesigning primary care. ( Chiefs Suite )
14:45 – 15:45	Workshops and roundtables
15:45 – 16:00	Summary and close

**Please note: there will be photographers present on the day. If you would not like to be photographed, please make yourself known to a member of SW AHSN staff.*