

Provisional programme

Time	Speaker/ break
09:30 - 10:30	Registration (with refreshments)
10:30 - 10:40	Welcome from New Forest Centre & New Forest Knowledge project
10:40 – 13:00	Session 1 , chair t.b.a
10:40 – 11:00	Prof. Adrian Newton , Bournemouth University “Impacts of environmental change on New Forest woodlands”
11:00 – 11:20	Paul Evans , Bournemouth University “Ecological implications of beech dieback in the New Forest”
11:20 – 11:40	Dr Elena Cantarello , Bournemouth University “Resilience of New Forest woodlands to disturbance”
11:40 – 12:00	Arjan Gosal , Bournemouth University “Dynamics of ecosystem services in the New Forest”
12:00 – 12:20	Alexander Lovegrove , Bournemouth University “Is condition assessment suitable for adaptive management? Results from New Forest bogs and heaths”
12:20 – 12:40	Dr Becky Spake , University of Southampton “Similar biodiversity of ectomycorrhizal fungi in ancient and inclosure woodlands”
12:40 – 13:00	Discussion
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 - 15:50	Session 2 , chair t.b.a.
14:00 - 14:20	Prof. Russell Wynn and Marcus Ward , Wild New Forest “Winners and losers: monitoring the changing fauna of the New Forest”
14:20 - 14:40	Dr Duncan Ray , Forest Research “Projected impacts of climate change on New Forest woodlands”
14:40 - 15:00	Dr Chris Short , University of Gloucestershire “Climate change and resilience: a collective problem solving approach”.
15:00 - 15:40	Emma McIntosh , University of Oxford “Towards systematic conservation planning in the New Forest”
15:40 - 15:50	Discussion
15:50 - 16:15	Tea / coffee break
16:15 - 17:15	Session 3 , chair t.b.a. Panel discussion, featuring representatives of local organisations [provisionally including the New Forest National Park Authority, the Forestry Commission, the New Forest Verderers, the New Forest Association, etc.]