'I, Daniel Blake' comes to Bedford

Described as 'one of the most powerful and moving films in recent memory', we are proud to welcome Ken Loach's 'I, Daniel Blake' film screening and discussion to Bedford.

Thursday 19 January 2017

18:30 – 22:00

Trinity Arts & Leisure, Bromham Road
Bedford MK40 2QD

Admission by donation: please book your tickets, adding your donation, from: www.DanielBlakeBedford.Eventbrite.co.uk

Student and unwaged tickets can be booked for free.

“Half a century on from ‘Cathy Come Home’ and ten years after ‘The Wind That Shakes the Barley’, Ken Loach has made what is arguably his finest film since that Palme D’or-winner.” S&S

ABOUT MOMENTUM

As successor to the campaign to elect Jeremy Corbyn as leader, Momentum is a Labour Party-focused organisation, and its structure must reflect that.

Momentum seeks to strengthen the Labour Party by increasing participation and engagement at all levels. Plus, Momentum is committed to supporting the Labour Party winning elections and entering government.

It seeks to use its base in the Labour Party to reach out to the 99% currently not members of any political party, spread Labour values and increase Labour Party membership.

Momentum Bedford & County is a verified group, based in Bedford, with members from Bedfordshire. It covers Bedford Borough and includes Bedford & Kempston, North East Beds, Mid Beds and South West Beds CLPs. Our sister group, Momentum Luton, covers Luton North and South CLPs.
