I agree that I will not sell any food items/articles/beverages etc. at the Youth and Young Adult Tasting. I understand that sale of foods/articles/items/beverages etc. could result in closure of my table, removal from the grounds and forfeiture of future participation in the Youth and Young Adult Tasting Event

It is the responsibility of the chef/cook and team members to thoroughly read and understand the Contest Rules sheet. My signature indicates that we have done this.

Rules and Regulations

Chefs/Cooks will be responsible for displaying fully cooked tasting dishes for public consumption (enough for 50 – 60 people) and maintaining a clean area at all times

Event Coordinator will provide wire racks, aluminum pans, sternos, tasting plates, forks, gloves, trash bags, apron and chef’s hat

Note: -- No open flames are permissible.

BOOTH SPACES ARE LIMITED. Respond quickly!

CHECK-IN: Chefs/Cooks must check in between 12:30pm – 1:15p.m. Sunday, January 15, 2017 with the Tasting Committee Team at the registration booth. The committee will provide each chef/cook with Registration Packet which includes: apron, chef’s hat, name & dish tent card, table number, plastic gloves, trash bags.

Wire racks, tasting plates and forks will be at each station.

PLEASE NOTE: ANY CHEF/COOK THAT DOES NOT CHECK IN BETWEEN 12:30 – 1:15 PM WILL NOT BE ABLE TO PARTICIPATE.

RULES:

1. No names, logos, writing, drawings, etc. are to be written/placed on the tasting plates by the chefs/cooks;
2. All cooking equipment, etc. should be removed as soon as possible after tasting dishes are gone. The event committee will not be responsible for chef/cook equipment, decorations, etc. left on the grounds after event has ended.

I hereby declare that I have read and agree to all of the above listed terms. I understand that I take responsibility for the manning my designated area at all times. I understand that any actions done by me or my team that oppose any previously mentioned term may lead to removal from the premises, and inability to participate in future Youth and Young Chef Tasting Events.
