

National Indian Gaming Association (NIGA) Chairman Ernie Stevens, Jr. invites you to join him at the 2017 New Mexico Tribal Gaming Symposium!

"The Tribal Gaming Protection Network and the National Indian Casino Safety Association will offer a great agenda with a wide variety of important educational and training topics for tribal gaming officials; I encourage you to attend." – Ernie Stevens, Jr.

2017 New Mexico Tribal Gaming Symposium

Isleta Resort & Casino • November 7-8, 2017

Albuquerque, NM • Presented by NMIGCTC & TGPN

Tribal Governments & Tribal Commissions
Compliance & Technology • Backgrounds & Licensing
Audit & Investigations • Surveillance & Security

For more information: Scott Riley or Regina Baca | nmigctc@gmail.com
NM Tribal Gaming Symposium/Eventbrite.com

The New Mexico Indian Gaming Commission Training Chapter (NMIGCTC) in partnership with the Tribal Gaming Protection Network (TGPN) is proud to announce the 2017 New Mexico Tribal Gaming Symposium to be held at the Isleta Resort & Casino on November 7-8, 2017, in Albuquerque, NM.

Together we are organizing two full days of FREE training, covering topics in Tribal Governments & Tribal Commissions, Compliance & Technology, Backgrounds & Licensing, Audit & Investigations, and Surveillance & Security. The NMIGCTC and TGPN have worked diligently to bring presentations and demonstrations from experienced professionals within the gaming industry to New Mexico.

We are inviting participants from Tribal Governments & Tribal Commissions, Compliance, Licensing, Audit, Surveillance and Security Departments within New Mexico, as well as other tribal gaming personnel from across Indian Country.

To register go to: NM Tribal Gaming Symposium/Eventbrite.com
For hotel room reservations, Group Code NMG1117, please contact: 877-475-3827