

Description:

Funeral Pre-planning

Led by the Rev. Jonathan Wickham

Planning a funeral is delicate work. Doing so in the midst of grief and loss is even more challenging. Loved ones often seek to remember conversation snippets or vague preferences, desperate to organize just the right ceremony. Leaving behind some ideas of what may be important to you in the planning of your funeral or memorial service is very helpful. We'll go over some sensible approaches for this advance planning.