

Mildura Base Hospital presents

Introductory Critical Care Study Day

Target Audience

All clinical staff in critical care areas

Graduate Nurses:

- Critical Care Stream

Program Outline

Early recognition & assessment of the critically unwell patient

ABG Interpretation

Non-invasive Ventilation

Mechanical Ventilation including capnography

Differentiating and managing shock states, inotropes & haemodynamic interpretation

Things to consider during massive blood loss & fluid resuscitation

(content subject to change)

This course has been designed to enhance the professional development of critical care nurses requiring knowledge and skills to manage patients with acute respiratory pathophysiology requiring ventilation, and those who are haemodynamically unstable.

Details

Date: Wednesday 11th March 2020

Time: 0815 – 1630

Venue: MBH – Conference Room 1

Cost: $75 internal* (MBH, Ouyen & RDHS)

$125 external

Costs inclusive of GST and Eventbrite processing fee

**Nil cost for Critical Care Stream Graduate Nurses*

Registrations

Bookings essential – register via

<https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/critical-care-study-day-march-2020-tickets-90099218187>

Presenter

Mr Simon Plapp, (RN, BHSc., Post Grad Dip (ICU), M.Hlth Ethics. MACCCN) has extensive experience as an ICU Educator and simplifies complex topics in a thought provoking and entertaining manner, using clever analogies and interactive teaching strategies. He is currently ICU Educator and Standard 9 Coordinator at Western Private Hospital and Victoria's Representative on the ARC representing the ACCCN.

Queries

Michelle Byrnes Principal Nurse Educator
byrnesmichelle@ramsayhealth.com.au

Mildura Base Hospital

Part of Ramsay Health Care