

Australian Nurses and Midwives Conference Program

Day 1 - Thursday 12 September MELBOURNE CONVENTION AND EXHIBITION CENTRE

7.30am Registration and trade display - ground floor foyer

9am Official conference open
Lisa Fitzpatrick, Secretary, Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)

9.05am First State Super

9.10am Moving on from trauma - the Lindt cafe siege
Louisa Hope, Founder of the Louisa Hope Foundation

10.15am Morning tea and trade display - ground floor foyer

10.45 - 11.10am Concurrent sessions 1

1a Midwifery
What is required to strengthen the system for maternity care and change the way we think and feel
Bree Bulle, Director, Regional Maternal & Perinatal Mortality and Morbidity Committees, Royal Women's Hospital

1b AOD
AOD and the Mother Baby unit - RWS
Rose McCrohan, Nurse Unit Manager and Nurse Practitioner, Uniting Care ReGen - Curran Place

1c Nursing
A proactive system of care for patients with life-limiting chronic conditions
Associate Professor Peter Poon, Director - Palliative and Supportive Care Monash Health

1d OHS
OVA - It starts at the top. The OVA Coordinator role and embedding senior management commitment and involvement
Presenter to be confirmed, Eastern Health

11.15 - 11.40am Concurrent sessions 2

2a Midwifery
What factors contribute to midwives work satisfaction and do years post registration make a difference?
Rebecca Hyde, Womens Hospital & La Trobe University 'EXPerT Study'

2b AOD
Towards a National Pill Testing Early Warning System: what could we see in Victoria?
Penny Hill, PhD Candidate; Research Assistant, Burnet Institute and Harm Reduction Australia

2c Nursing
Engaging nurses to take a greater role in prescribing medicines
Professor Lisa Nissen, Head of the School of Clinical Sciences, Queensland University of Technology

2d OHS
Mental health promotion versus psychosocial risk prevention - what should we consider during implementation and what controls should be in place?
Dr Carlo Caponecchia, Senior Lecturer, The University of NSW

11.50am Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) - how can we better understand and support parents, carers and employees working with those living with FASD
Sue Miers, National Organisation for Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders, Normansville, SA

12.35pm Lunch and trade display - ground floor foyer

1.25 - 1.50pm Concurrent sessions 3

3a Midwifery
Sharing midwifery knowledge in a rural setting
Denise Lawlor, Clinical Educator Midwifery, Bass Coast Health & Sue Crosby, Midwife, West Gippsland Healthcare Group

3b AOD
Resilience – one nurse's experience with addiction
Glenn Taylor, CEO, Nursing and Midwifery Health Program Victoria

3b Nursing
Advanced care planning
Presenter to be confirmed

3b OHS
WorkCover Tips
Rachel Schutze, Principal Lawyer, Gordon Legal

1.55pm OVA's in the Victorian aged care sector - who have implemented the 10 point plan and what have the results been?
Professor Timothy Bartram, Prof of Management, School of Management, College of Business, RMIT University

2.35pm Midwifery Leadership and Management – what is its contribution to our practice
Tanya Farrell – Chair of the Consultative Council on Obstetric and Paediatric Mortality and Morbidity (CCOPMM) and the Senior Maternity Adviser in Safer Care Victoria

3.15pm Afternoon tea and trade display - ground floor foyer

3.40pm Intergenerational Trauma – response and action
Presenter to be confirmed

4.15pm Close of day 1

Australian Nurses and Midwives Conference Program

Day 2 - Friday 12 September

MELBOURNE CONVENTION AND EXHIBITION CENTRE

7.30am Registration and trade display - ground floor foyer

8.50am Keynote presentation - safety and quality in healthcare
Adjunct Professor Debora Picone, CEO, Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Healthcare

9.30am Love your sister - caring for a loved one while navigating the healthcare system
Samuel Johnson OAM, actor, presenter, fundraiser and founder of Love Your Sister

10.30am Morning tea and trade display - ground floor foyer

11 - 11.25am Concurrent sessions 4

4a Midwifery
Transforming Grief and Self Care for Midwives
Stacey O'Brien, Midwifery Educator/Facilitator, A Kiss From an Angel

4b Aged care
Feelings first: can emotionally intelligent leadership improve resident outcomes in aged care?
Gay Taylor, Aged Care, Western Sydney University

4c Nursing
Addressing family violence through collaborative partnerships
Terry Welch, CEO, Maryborough District Health Service

4d OHS
The industrial Manslaughter campaign - how does this apply to nursing?
Dr Paul Sutton, Lead OHS Organiser, Trades Hall and Former Director - Union Rights Centre, United Voice

11.30 - 11.55am Concurrent sessions 5

5a Midwifery
A regional approach to PROMPT maternity emergency implementation
Kylie Osborne, Regional Midwife, Safer Care Victoria

5b Aged care
What quality of care? The impact of poor staffing levels and private-for-profit aged care ownership
Dr Julie Henderson, Research Associate - Nursing and Public Health Research, Flinders University

5c Nursing
Partnering with the north: evaluating and building capacity for stronger families
Roslyn Payne, Deputy Director Of Nursing And Midwifery, Northern Health

5d OHS
Changing a culture of underreporting
Danielle Austin, Incident Response Manager & Sean Evans, NUM, St Vincent's Hospital, Sydney

12 - 12.25pm Concurrent sessions 6

6a Midwifery
What are the barriers to implementing psychosocial assessment in the private midwifery sector
Tanya Connell, RN, PhD candidate, University of Sydney

6b Aged care
Aged care and insight into the Royal Commission process
Dr Jo Ibrahim, Melbourne gerontologist

6b Nursing
Critical Incident Response Team (CIRT) Information Sharing Project - Enhanced Critical Response Program
Presenter to be confirmed, Melbourne Health

6b OHS
Not just part of the job - making OHS a priority
Brett Holmes, General Secretary, NSW Nurses and Midwives Association

12.30pm Fatigue management - where are we at now?
An in-depth exploration of current theories and policies

1.05pm Lunch and trade display - ground floor foyer

1.55pm Voluntary Assisted Dying - guidance for health practitioners
Molly Carlile AM, Member of the Voluntary Assisted Dying Implementation Taskforce

2.40pm Keynote presenter to be announced

3.45pm Close of day 2

Disclaimer: ANMF (Vic Branch) will endeavour to ensure that the speakers and content for this conference proceed as advertised. However, we may have to replace a speaker unexpectedly. ANMF (Vic Branch) disclaims any liability for any errors/omissions in information provided at this conference.