

Australian Nurses and Midwives Conference program

Day 1 – Thursday 12 September

7.30am Registration and trade display - ground floor foyer

9am Official conference open
Lisa Fitzpatrick, Secretary, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)

9.05am First State Super

9.10am Moving on from trauma - the Lindt Cafe siege
Louisa Hope, Founder of the Louisa Hope Foundation

10.15am Morning tea and trade display - ground floor foyer

10.45 - 11.10am Concurrent sessions 1

1a Midwifery
What is required to strengthen the system for maternity care and change the way we think and feel
Bree Bulle, Director, Regional Maternal and Perinatal Mortality and Morbidity Committees, Royal Women's Hospital

1b AOD
AOD and the mother baby unit - residential withdrawal service
Rose McCrohan, Nurse Unit Manager and Nurse Practitioner, Uniting Care ReGen - Curran Place

1c Nursing
Nursing on the go - how advanced nursing roles are changing the lives for our most vulnerable
Simone O'Brien, Nurse Practitioner and Midwife, Bendigo Health and Heathcote Health

1d OHS
The changing dynamics surrounding modern workplaces and how WorkSafe is responding through its transformational strategy
Clare Amies, CEO, WorkSafe Victoria

11.15 - 11.40am Concurrent sessions 2

2a Midwifery
What factors contribute to midwives work satisfaction and do years post registration make a difference?
Rebecca Hyde, The Women's hospital and La Trobe University 'EXPERT Study'

2b AOD
Towards a national pill testing early warning system: what could we see in Victoria?
Penny Hill, PhD Candidate; Research Assistant, Burnet Institute and Harm Reduction Australia

2c Nursing
Engaging nurses to take a greater role in prescribing medicines
Professor Lisa Nissen, Head of the School of Clinical Sciences, Queensland University of Technology

2d OHS
Improving clinical management of code grey events in acute medical settings
Marcus Hovey, Nurse Unit Manager & Dr Sophie Ping, Medical Administration, Management and Leadership, Ballarat Health Services

11.50am Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) - how can we better understand and support parents, carers and employees working with those living with FASD
Sue Miers AM, Founder, National Organisation for Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders, Normansville, SA

12.35pm Lunch and trade display - ground floor foyer

1.25 - 1.50pm Concurrent sessions 3

3a Midwifery
Sharing midwifery knowledge in a rural setting
Denise Lawlor, Clinical Educator Midwifery, Bass Coast Health and Sue Crosby, Midwifery Clinical Educator, West Gippsland Healthcare Group

3b AOD
Resilience – one nurse's experience with addiction
Glenn Taylor, CEO, Nursing and Midwifery Health Program Victoria

3c Nursing
Advanced care planning - considerations, obstructions and structures
Kathy Whiteside, Advance Care Planning Coordinator, Austin Health

3d OHS
WorkCover tips
Rachel Schutze, Principal Lawyer, Gordon Legal

1.55pm OVA in the Victorian aged care sector - who has implemented the ANMF 10 Point Plan and what have the results been?
Professor Timothy Bartram, Professor of Management, School of Management, College of Business, RMIT University

2.35pm Midwifery leadership and management – what is its contribution to our practice
Tanya Farrell – Chair of the Consultative Council on Obstetric and Paediatric Mortality and Morbidity (CCOPMM) and the Senior Maternity Adviser in Safer Care Victoria

3.15pm Afternoon tea and trade display - ground floor foyer

3.40pm Healing the past by nurturing the future: addressing complex intergenerational trauma with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
Associate Professor Catherine Chamberlain, National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC) Career Development Fellow, Judith Lumley Centre, La Trobe University

4.15pm Close of day 1

Day 2 – Friday 13 September

7.30am	Registration and trade display - ground floor foyer
8.50am	Keynote presentation - safety and quality in healthcare Adjunct Professor Debora Picone, CEO, Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Healthcare
9.30am	Love your sister - caring for a loved one while navigating the healthcare system Samuel Johnson OAM, actor, presenter, fundraiser and founder of Love Your Sister
10.30am	Morning tea and trade display - ground floor foyer
11 - 11.25am	Concurrent sessions 4
4a	Midwifery Transforming grief and self care for midwives Stacey O'Brien, Midwifery Educator/Facilitator, A Kiss From an Angel	4b	Aged care Feelings first: can emotionally intelligent leadership improve resident outcomes in aged care? Gay Taylor, Aged Care, Western Sydney University	4c	Nursing Addressing family violence through collaborative partnerships Speaker to be confirmed	4d	OHS The industrial manslaughter campaign - how does this apply to nursing? Dr Paul Sutton, Lead OHS Organiser, Trades Hall and former Director - Union Rights Centre, United Voice
11.30 - 11.55am	Concurrent sessions 5
5a	Midwifery A regional approach to PROMPT maternity emergency implementation Kylie Osborne, Regional Midwife, Safer Care Victoria	5b	Aged care What quality of care? The impact of poor staffing levels and private-for-profit aged care ownership Dr Julie Henderson, Research Associate - Nursing and Public Health Research, Flinders University	5c	Nursing Partnering with the north: evaluating and building capacity for stronger families Roslyn Payne, Deputy Director of Nursing and Midwifery, Northern Health	5d	OHS Changing a culture of under-reporting Danielle Austin, Incident Response Manager and Sean Evans, Nurse Unit Manager, St Vincent's Hospital, Sydney
12 - 12.25pm	Concurrent sessions 6
6a	Midwifery What are the barriers to implementing psychosocial assessment in the private midwifery sector Tanya Connell, RN, PhD candidate, University of Sydney	6b	Aged care Aged care and insight into the royal commission process Professor Joseph Ibrahim, Melbourne Gerontologist and Head - Health Law and Ageing Research Unit, Monash University	6c	Nursing Western HealthLinks - supporting patients with chronic and complex conditions at the home Kirsty Barnes, Manager - Healthlinks and Integrated Care, Western HealthLinks, Western Health	6d	OHS Not just part of the job – making OHS a priority Judith Kiejda, Assistant Secretary, NSW Nurses and Midwives Association
12.30pm	Fatigue management – where are we at now? An in-depth exploration of current theories Jessica L Paterson PhD, Senior Lecturer in Psychology, Department of Psychology and Public Health, School of Health Medical and Applied Sciences, CQUniversity Australia, Appleton Institute
1.05pm	Lunch and trade display - ground floor foyer
1.55pm	Voluntary assisted dying – guidance for health practitioners Molly Carlile AM, member of the Voluntary Assisted Dying Implementation Taskforce
2.40pm	Looking back to look forward to the future of nursing – from a nurse who has seen and done it all Trish O'Hara OAM, transplant nurse on Australia's first heart transplant and Professional Officer, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (Vic Branch)
3.10pm	Close of day 2						