

2019 Undergraduate Student Nurse/Midwife Study Day

Friday 24 May

Agenda

8.30am	Registration
9am	Conference opening & welcome Lisa Fitzpatrick, Secretary, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (Victorian Branch)
9.10am	Giving it your best shot – how to make the most of your application Jane Warneke, Graduate Nurse Coordinator, Austin Health
10am	The interview process – how can I succeed? Fleur Gladwell, Education Consultant – RN Graduate Program, St Vincent's Private Hospital
10.45am	First State Super
10.50am	Morning tea and trade display Graduate program coordinators and conference sponsors in attendance for questions
11.20am	Computer Match Aileen Falzon, Computer Matching Service, Postgraduate Medical Council of Victoria (PMCV)
11.50am	Understanding your pay and working conditions as a graduate nurse/midwife Paul Gilbert, Assistant Secretary, Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (Victorian Branch)
12.40pm	Surviving and thriving in my graduate year Glenn Taylor, Chief Executive Officer, Nursing and Midwifery Health Program Victoria
12.55pm	Lunch and trade display Graduate program coordinators and conference sponsors in attendance for questions
1.35pm	The graduate year experience Three recent graduates share their stories, insight and experiences from their first year in their workplace
2.05pm	Graduate panel Q&A
2.20pm	Collaborative care Yolly Gangemi, Victorian President, Australian College of Critical Care Nurses (ACCCN)
3.05pm	The registration application process Petrina Halloran, Manager – Policy Research and Practice Standards, Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
3.30pm	Conference close and questions