

Designing Easy to Read Resources

Health Literacy and Written Communication

Presenter Biography

Kaye Bearlin has worked with Bendigo Loddon Primary Care Partnership for over three years. Kaye resources health organisations in Health Literacy and Consumer Engagement.

She has undertaken four major Health Literacy Environment audits with regional health services and hospitals. These have involved recruiting a range of consumers with low or moderate health literacy to review if a health service is easy to find, navigate and understand. Each service has received photo evidence of good practice, any changes required and comments from consumers.

Kaye has a background in social work and community development. She has extensive experience in the child and family welfare sector. She has qualifications in psychology, community development and management.
