

BIO – Aiman Hamdoura, Director of Hatch Quarter and Co-Founder of Mo Works

Aiman Hamdouna is the Director of Hatch Quarter, a co-working space and startup incubator for international entrepreneurs. He is also the Co-founder of Mo Works, a creative agency that is leading the way in design, digital and emerging technology. As a leader in the Victorian startup community, Aiman put his global mindset to work in building support networks and accessible tools aimed at guiding founders to success. Along the way, he has picked up a few secrets on what it takes to start a startup.”