

Peter Gibson:

Peter is a Law and Engineering degree qualified management consultant with 15 years' experience, providing commercial, strategic and project management advice for large transport, water and resource organisations in Australia, the United Kingdom and the Middle East. Peter has exceptional commercial understanding and is experienced in procurement strategy, tender development and contract drafting. He is a strategic thinker with well developed interpersonal skills.

Mike Capps:

Mike is a senior business leader, with an innovative and dynamic approach to driving business performance through creativity, passion, discipline and unrelenting commitment. A leader who works at a fast pace to rapidly transform business in today's rapidly changing environment and has a vision to achieve the absolute greatest level of excellence in all aspects of my career, life and for the organisations which he is employed.

Specialities: Leadership, cloud, mobility, leading change, IT outsourcing, strategic planning, account management, sales, service delivery, building teams.