

Nim Gholkar

Professional Speaker / Author / Success Coach

BIOGRAPHY

Nim's is a quintessential migrant achievement story. Working her way through different corporate roles while raising a family, Nim's successful navigation of challenges became the cornerstone of her popular empowerment programme. As a sought after Success Coach, Nim works with individuals & corporate clients on customised action plans and result focused strategies, to get them that winning edge in today's fast paced world.

A charismatic speaker, Nim has presented on a wide range of topics, across Australia, India, Dubai, Egypt and Thailand. Her signature workshops spanning an hour to a full day, are tailored to suit clients and audiences. These engaging and interactive sessions encourage participants to broaden perspectives, harness creativity and learn from within.

Nim is the author of 3 popular books: 'Diary of an Immigrant Bride' (translated into Marathi language as 'Mee Anjali'), 'Unlock The Real You' (also translated into Marathi language) and the recently launched 'A Little Wiser, A Little Happier' which explores a multitude of socially relevant topics to help us see life through a wider lens.

Nim is based in Sydney and tours India regularly. Book Nim to speak at your next event, corporate workshop or personal coaching for success.
