

After a 30 year career in the Royal Canadian Navy retiring as a Captain, followed by positions with a large multinational aerospace and defence corporation, Anthony (Tony) Goode joined CFN Consultants Atlantic in their Aerospace and Defence consulting practice, where he advises a number of clients in the aerospace, marine industries and shipbuilding, ocean technology and the defence sector on business development, business strategy and security related matters.

His consulting practice also includes working on a number of reports on the Aerospace, Defence, Oceans Technology and shipbuilding sectors for clients including AAADA, ACADA, NSBI, ACOA and the Province of Nova Scotia among others.

He is the past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Nova Scotia International Air Show, and Chair of the Steering Committee of DEFSEC Atlantic. He is a Director of the Naval Association of Canada, President of the Royal Military Colleges Club of Canada, long time member of the Nova Scotia branch of the RMC Club of Canada and an active Rotarian. He is a past member of the Board of Directors of the Laing House Association, and past –Chair of the Laing House Foundation. He is the Chair of the Halifax, NS-Norfolk, Virginia Sister Cities Committee. He has recently joined the Board of Directors of the Canadian Naval Memorial Trust.

Tony is a graduate of the Royal Military College of Canada and the National Defence College of Canada.