

Odessa Links' 5th Annual Community Conference

2018 Sponsorship/Exhibitor Opportunities

Odessa Links is pleased to provide community partners from across the region a conference to promote self-care and stress reduction in their challenging service professions. This year's topic is: From Surviving to Thriving: Self-Care for Service Professionals. Drawing from literature on resilience, positive psychology, compassion satisfaction and post traumatic growth, Vicki Packheiser, LCSW will provide participants with effective resilience building practices in this creative, interactive and community building workshop.

This highly anticipated 1-day educational workshop will be held at the UTPB CEED building. To support this event, Odessa Links invites you to participate in this annual conference as a sponsor. There will be promotion and recognition opportunities for all sponsorship levels and you will also receive a booth at the conference to promote your organization or services.

If you are interested in participating, please complete and return the reply form to the Odessa Links office no later than Thursday, May 31 so we may begin promoting your organization on our website and written materials. If you have questions or need more information, please contact Erika Thomas at Odessa Links 582-0099 linksconference@gmail.com .
