

Ethics: Professional Leadership

December 7, 2015
1:00 p.m.—4:15p.m.

Skyline Madison Hospital
500 Hospital Drive, Nashville, 37115

$50 for 3.0 CLE/CEUs

In mediating conflicts, does being “neutral” mean that you’re stuck in neutral, or are you driving a process forward? How do you promote justice, social justice, or change? How do you give back to your profession or consciously abide by your professional code of ethics? This seminar helps you determine the cost of avoiding conflicts and presents your ethics and duties in a manner that is rarely presented - in the context of LEADERSHIP.
Register today at www.mhamt.org!

Sponsors:

Registration: Professional Leadership
Please complete one form per participant.

Registration Fee: $50 before 11/30; $75 after 11/30

NAME
FACILITY
ADDRESS
CITY
STATE and ZIP
PHONE
EMAIL
CREDENTIALS	(i.e. LCSW, Attorney, MDiv)
DATE OF BIRTH	(for Nursing Credit and Certificate only)

PAYMENT (Please Check One)

- Check (Payable to Mental Health America of Middle Tennessee)
- VISA MasterCard American Express

Card #: _____
Expiration Date: _____ CVV Code: _____

Send completed registration with payment to:
Mental Health America of Middle Tennessee
446 Metroplex Drive, Suite A-224
Nashville, TN 37211

Please note that the payment address is different from the physical address of the seminar.*

Register Online: www.mhamt.org
Questions? Call (615) 269-5355 or email tstarling@mhamt.org.

Registration and Cancellation: Registration includes the seminar and respective CEUs/CLEs. A substitute may attend in your place, as there is no refund. There are no discounts for attending only a portion of the seminar. MHAMT reserves the right to cancel the event due to unforeseen circumstances, in which case registrants will be contacted and credit will be applied.

Professional Leadership December 7, 2015

Educational Objectives:

Upon completion, participants will be able to:

- Discuss and demonstrate leadership and professionalism in a multidisciplinary setting
- Calculate the real financial cost of avoiding conflict
- List ways you can give back to your profession by being a leader
- Contrast and compare professional leadership to your professional ethics
- Discuss how professional leadership can lead to improved justice and social welfare for your clients.

Agenda:

12:30pm	Registration
1:00pm	Legal Ethics and Professionalism
1:45pm	Social Justice & Public Welfare
2:30pm	Break
2:45pm	Leadership in Counseling Clients
3:30pm	The Cost of Unresolved Conflict Verses Mediation Leadership
4:15pm	Evaluation & Adjournment

Continuing Education:

Attorneys: This seminar has been approved by the TN Commission on Legal Education and Specialization for 3.0 dual CLE.

Certified Peer Recovery Specialist: This seminar is approved for Continuing Education Hours toward Certified Peer Recover Specialist Renewal.

Licensed Counselors: TLPCA has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider, #6376. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. TLPCA is solely responsible for all aspects of the program. This seminar is approved for 3.0 CEs of ethics.

Mediators: This seminar is approved for 3 hours CME: 1.5 hours of mediation ethics and 1.5 hours of general continuing education.

Psychologists: Because this seminar is NBCC approved by TLPCA, it is automatically approved for Level 2 Credit for psychologists: 3.0 hours

Social Workers: This program is approved by the National Association of Social Workers-TN Chapter for 3.0 continuing education units of ethics.

Other: All will receive certificates of attendance.

Seminar Directions:

From I-65S, take Exit 92 (Madison/Old Hickory Boulevard) and go east on Old Hickory for approximately 3 miles. (You will cross over Gallatin Road). At the 3rd light, turn right on Larkin Springs Road. Go 0.6 miles and take a left on Hospital Drive. Once on campus, look for the Medical Office Building (MOB), located at 510 Hospital Dr. It is a red-brick building with rounded glass. On the 4th Floor you will find the Magnolia Room where the seminar will take place.

Faculty at a Glance

Denise Bentley, JD, is the Youth Court Coordinator for the Tennessee Youth Court Program, a division of the nonprofit Tennessee Legal Community Foundation. Previously, Bentley taught at the University of Tennessee and litigated in juvenile courts, and most recently she administered violence prevention initiatives for Metro Nashville Public Schools.

Karen Franklin, LPSW, CEAP, has served as the Executive Director of National Association of Social Work, Tennessee Chapter, since 2002. A graduate of University of Tennessee, Franklin is a consummate professional who is dedicated to her work, her profession, and her colleagues.

Leigh Anne Roberts, JD, TSC Rule 31 is an attorney, mediator, arbitrator, consultant, and coach. A graduate of Ole Miss Law School, Ms. Roberts has been a TSC Rule 31 Mediator for 12 years. She is an Adjunct Professor at Belmont's law school and business school. Roberts is a founding member of Papa Roberts, PLLC, Attorneys and Consultants, and she works with her husband as part of Nashville-based The Circle Center.

Rebecca Stein, LPC, MHSP, is the President of Tennessee Licensed Professional Counselors Association. A graduate of UT Chattanooga, Stein is currently the Director of Adult Residential Programs at CADAS, the Council for Alcohol and Drug Abuse Services, in Chattanooga.