

SEPTEMBER 23RD 2017

McBean Pavillion • 65 McBean Park Dr • Lincoln, CA

Presented By LENNAR[®]

2017 is the inaugural ride of Cycling for a Better Tomorrow. A premier event nestled in the majestic and beautiful foothills of Lincoln, CA. Take a journey through the peaceful countryside of Lincoln, Newcastle and Granite Bay.

Individuals, families, groups and companies from all walks of life come together Cycling for a Better Tomorrow! Choose the route distance that is comfortable for you or take on a challenge and train to go a little further. All this fun and entertainment while giving back to the community.

The ride has two benefiting charities:

HomeAid Sacramento, founded in 1996, Sacramento's leader in renovating and constructing dignified housing where the homeless rebuild their lives.

Sharktank Research Foundation, formed in 1998, an international Cystic Fibrosis research company dedicated to accelerating development of safer and more effective therapies for Cystic Fibrosis. The CF community will not give up until they find a cure!
