

SCOTTISH PUBLIC SECTOR TAXATION CONFERENCE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the refund terms?

Full refunds will be provided up until 1 September, due to catering arrangements refunds after this date will not be processed.

Can I stay overnight?

We have negotiated a special 24-hour delegate rate which includes either Bed Breakfast and evening meal or just bed and Breakfast. For more information on the special rates please email 2017pubsectaxconf@gov.scot

How do I get to the Hotel?

- By Car

The hotel is ideally situated for those travelling by car from all parts of Scotland, with the M9 motorway from Edinburgh and the M80 from Glasgow merging less than 4 miles from the Hotel. The Hotel is also close to the A9 dual carriageway from the North which passes less than a mile away.

Once you have arrived at the Hotel there are approximately 200 car parking spaces.

- By Rail

Dunblane has a mainline rail station with regular trains from Glasgow, Edinburgh and Aberdeen. Travel from the station can be either walking or by taxi.

If walking the Hotel is situated less than a mile to the North at the top of a steep hill. Local taxi firms are available for those that do not wish or are capable of the walk.

- By Bus

If travelling by bus the main bus station is at nearby Stirling, whilst Stirling University in nearby Bridge of Allan has express links to a number of cities.

How can my colleagues get an invite?

If you believe that the conference will be of interest to other colleagues in your organisation or other parts of the Scottish public sector please feel free to advise them.

Please email 2017pubsectaxconf@gov.scot with your colleague's email address and name and an invite will be issued.

What if I have special dietary arrangements?

If you require any special dietary arrangements please advise us at 2017pubsectaxconf@gov.scot.

Are facilities accessible?

Yes, all facilities at the hotel are accessible. Should you require any specific assistance on the day please advise us and we will arrange this with the Hotel.
