

Equality for Us, Inclusion for All: Agenda

09:15 to 10:00	Registration (refreshments available)
10:00 to 10:45	Welcome and Introduction Housekeeping; outline of the day; Inspiring speaker
10:45 to 11:45	WORKSHOP SLOT I In a series of interactive sessions with a focus on equality, inclusion, constructive dialogue and participating in democracy, delegates are invited to critically assess the norm and explore ways to further improve equality and inclusion of minority groups within society. The three different workshops will be repeated in each slot and everyone will get a chance to participate in all of them. Delegates must follow their assigned letter (A, B or C) and attend a different workshop for each slot according.
	INCLUSION (A) This workshop will explore everything related to inclusion of minority groups in society, by picturing what exclusion feels like and how to overcome it. It will further focus on examining how to make participation spaces more inclusive for all young people.	PARTICIPATION IN DEMOCRACY (B) This workshop will look more concretely into democratic processes and the obstacles for participation of certain minority groups as well as how to practically overcome them. Delegates will leave with the knowledge of available services already in place.	CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE (C) This workshop will educate participants on the European Youth Goals, and encourage delegates to use them in their own local initiatives. It will further explore how the communication around the Structured Dialogue can be more inclusive.
11:45 to 12:00	Break and 'Marketplace'
12:00 to 13:00	WORKSHOP SLOT II In a series of interactive sessions with a focus on equality, inclusion, constructive dialogue and democracy participation, delegates are invited to critically assess the norm and explore ways and means of further integration of minority groups within society and achieving equality. The three different workshops will be repeated in each slot and everyone will get a chance to participate in all of them. Delegates must follow their assigned letter (A, B or C) and attend a different workshop for each slot according.

	INCLUSION (B) This workshop will explore everything related to inclusion of minority groups in society, by picturing what exclusion feels like and how to overcome it. It will further focus on examining how to make participation spaces more inclusive for all young people.	PARTICIPATION IN DEMOCRACY (C) This workshop will look more concretely into democratic processes and the obstacles for participation of certain minority groups as well as how to practically overcome them. Delegates will leave with the knowledge of available services already in place.	CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE (A) This workshop will educate participants on the European Youth Goals, and encourage delegates to use them in their own local initiatives. It will further explore how the communication around the Structured Dialogue can be more inclusive.
13:00 to 14:00	Lunch and 'Marketplace'
14:00 to 15:00	WORKSHOP SLOT III In a series of interactive sessions with a focus on equality, inclusion, constructive dialogue and democracy participation, delegates are invited to critically assess the norm and explore ways and means of further integration of minority groups within society and achieving equality. The three different workshops will be repeated in each slot and everyone will get a chance to participate in all of them. Delegates must follow their assigned letter (A, B or C) and attend a different workshop for each slot according.
	INCLUSION (C) This workshop will explore everything related to inclusion of minority groups in society, by picturing what exclusion feels like and how to overcome it. It will further focus on examining how to make participation spaces more inclusive for all young people.	PARTICIPATION IN DEMOCRACY (A) This workshop will look more concretely into democratic processes and the obstacles for participation of certain minority groups as well as how to practically overcome them. Delegates will leave with the knowledge of available services already in place.	CONSTRUCTIVE DIALOGUE (B) This workshop will educate participants on the European Youth Goals, and encourage delegates to use them in their own local initiatives. It will further explore how the communication around the Structured Dialogue can be more inclusive.
15:00-15:10	Quick Break Delegates are invited to move quickly into the plenary room for the closing panel.
15:10 to 16:00	Closing Panel The closing panel will summarise the outcomes of the workshop and end with a reflection panel with experts from the sector whom have experience on equality and inclusion in a variety of forms.

Erasmus+

