

Emergency Contact and Consent Form

BYC events are run so that all participants are treated as equal and responsible adults. However, legislation and our own desire to ensure that everyone is safe means that in some circumstances we have to take extra care when organising events.

Therefore, we need the parent or guardian of our attendees to tick the boxes below and sign this form before allowing them to take part in our events.

This form will cover you only for the 1st and 2nd Members' Meetings: 10th February/19th May

If any of the personal information you provide us changes, it is your responsibility to notify the British Youth Council as soon as possible with updated details (including the details of your emergency contact). By signing this form you agree to keep us updated on all the below information.

Name of young person:
