

Rules for Paws in the Park 2019

These Rules (the “Rules”) apply to the Paws in the Park event taking place on Sat 6 April 2019 (the “Event”) and by registering for the Event, you agree to comply with them.

The Event is organised by the Women’s Aid Integrated Services (“we”, “us”, “our” and the “Committee”) a UK registered charity – registration number: 1094012 .

At the point of promoting this event, we are in the middle of rebranding, so our name will soon be changing – please note. We will update all of our communication to let people know

Participant Entry

1. Participants must be aged 18 or over at the time of registration.
2. Entrants under the age of 18 must have the permission of their parent or legal guardian before registering to take part in the Event.
3. We reserve the right to refuse entry to any participant who is under age, not accompanied as required or unable to provide their event registration confirmation, photo ID or other satisfactory proof of age when requested to do so by an Event official.
4. Participants are only eligible to take part in the Event if they have:
 - i. paid the £5 entry fee
 - ii. committed to aim to fundraise a minimum of £20 for Women’s Aid Integrated Services.
5. Given the limited number of spaces for the Event, entry fees are non-refundable. Furthermore, where we have a right to refuse your entry to the Event under these Rules, no refund will be given.

Changes and Last Minute Arrangements

1. We reserve the right to postpone and/or cancel the Event in our absolute discretion due to factors such as (but not limited to) adverse weather conditions.

General Health and Safety

1. Participants must ensure they are sufficiently fit and healthy to take part in the Event. Anyone unsure of their physical ability to take part in the Event must seek medical advice from a General Practitioner prior to the Event.
2. We reserve the right to refuse entry to the Event in our absolute discretion if for whatever reason we consider a person unfit to take part. We may also ask you to withdraw during the Event if we have concerns about your ability to complete it due to fitness, injury or otherwise. If you continue, you do so with the understanding that you absolve us and Women’s Aid Integrated Services of all and any responsibility and progress entirely at your own risk.
3. We take all reasonable steps to minimise the risk of injury to participants during fundraising events. There is a risk assessment process in place for the Event which aims to minimise or eliminate the risk to everyone taking part. However, by taking part in the Event, you acknowledge that it is potentially hazardous and that there may be conditions or circumstances beyond our control that can lead to unforeseen risks.
4. All participants, volunteers and spectators enter and attend the Event entirely at their own risk.
5. Participants must call the Event organiser or report to an Event marshal, should they decide not to finish the route before the close of the Event.

6. Participants are responsible for ensuring they are wearing appropriate attire (including footwear) when taking part in the Event, taking into account the nature of the Event, the weather forecast and the terrain involved. We reserve the right to refuse entry to the Event to anyone with inappropriate or missing equipment or clothing.
7. All participants must walk with care and attention and abide by the UK Highway Code and any other rules stipulated by the Event organiser, Event marshals, police and officials.
8. First aid marshals will be provided. Any major incidents should be reported to 999.
9. By taking part in the Event, you consent to receiving medical treatment administered by medically qualified personnel during the Event if required in any circumstances where you are unconscious or otherwise incapable of making a decision regarding medical treatment.
10. Dog owners are responsible for their dog(s) at all times
11. Dog owners (participants) are required to clean up after their dog(s) and respect the country code
12. Dogs must be kept on a lead in the car park areas.
13. All dog walkers will be expected to keep their dog under close control which may mean putting them on a lead. Each dog owner is responsible for their own dog and we can't take responsibility for this. Where a dog is causing disruption we will ask you to remove them from the main walk and you may complete the walk separately.

Liability

1. Women's Aid Integrated Services shall not be liable for any injury or loss to persons or their property that might occur as a result of their participation in or attendance at the Event other than in respect of any death or personal injury arising out of the Women's Aid Integrated Services negligence. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause shall exclude or limit Women's Aid Integrated Services' liability for any liability that cannot be excluded or limited by law.

Conduct

1. Any participant that is suspected of being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs will be refused entry and will not be allowed to participate in the Event.

What you must bring on the day

You must bring the following items with you:

Full water bottle and food as required

Water and food for your dog

Suitable clothing and footwear (taking into account the weather forecast)

A mobile phone with full battery

The emergency procedure and emergency contact details (provided at the start)

A full route map and instructions

Use of Personal Data

1. By providing personal data to Women's Aid Integrated Services when you register for the Event, you confirm that you consent to such data being used by Women's Aid Integrated Services for the purposes of organising, staging and administering the Event.

2. Depending on the answers you give to the marketing questions asked by Women's Aid Integrated Services, your personal data may also be used Women's Aid Integrated Services for future fundraising, events and campaigns
3. If you provide personal data on behalf of additional entrants, you also confirm that you have obtained their consent for such data to be used for the same purposes.
4. In the case of an emergency, Women's Aid Integrated Services may pass any personal details provided (either when registering for the Event or otherwise) to the emergency services or health care professionals, and also use them for the purposes of contacting emergency contacts. If you provide personal details on behalf of someone else, you confirm that you have their consent for their details to be used in this way.
5. Participants consent to their details (which will be obtained by medical providers if participants are treated by them at the Event) being passed to Women's Aid Integrated Services. These details shall only be used for administration and health and safety purposes and to fulfil legal obligations (including those under the Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations 2013.)
6. All personal data held by Women's Aid Integrated Services will be handled in accordance with Women's Aid Integrated Services' Privacy and Cookies Policy which can be found at www.wais.org.uk

Sponsorship Money and Donations

1. Any monies raised in connection with the Event are held on trust for Women's Aid Integrated Services and must be passed to Women's Aid Integrated Services. We ask that you do this as soon as possible after the Event. You can:

Pay in your sponsorship money online on your Just Giving page;

Pay in your sponsorship money on the day as a cheque or

Send cheques made payable to " Women's Aid Integrated Services" with your sponsor form to:

Women's Aid Integrated Services Finance team, 30 Chaucer Street, Nottingham, NG1 5LP

2. You have a legal responsibility to ensure that all sponsorship monies/donations received by you for the Event are paid to Women's Aid Integrated Services.