

Opportunities and Challenges in Anaerobic Digestion: Maryland and the Northeast US Experience

October 2, 2018. 9am – 4:30pm

Doubletree by Hilton, Annapolis
210 Holiday Court, Annapolis, Maryland, 21401

Workshop Topics

- Anaerobic Digestion: Where We Are Today
- Digester Systems in the Northeast – Successful Case Studies
- Federal Biogas Policy
- MD State Biogas Policy
- Use of Biogas: Scrubbing, RNG, GenSets, and Use of Excess Heat
- Food Waste and Co-Substrates; landfill diversion
- Chesapeake Bay and Nutrient Management Relationship to Digestion
- Financial Reality of Digesters and National Programs
- Opportunities for Growth and Incentives in Northeast/Mid-Atlantic
- Wastewater Treatment Plant Digesters
- Antibiotic Resistance and Effect of Dairy Manure Treatment Technologies

Registration: $35 per participant, with lunch provided https://www.eventbrite.com/e/opportunities-and-challenges-in-anaerobic-digestion-maryland-and-the-northeast-us-experience-tickets-49758719670?aff=utm_source%3Demail%26utm_medium%3Demail%26utm_campaign%3Dnew_event_email&utm_term=eventurl_text

Potential Workshop Participants

Policy makers, farmers, municipal governments, environmental and agricultural advocates, students, researchers, and private companies

Contact Us:

Conference Organizers: Dr. Stephanie Lansing (slansing@umd.edu), Dr. Gary Felton (gfelton@umd.edu), and Curt Gooch (cag26@cornell.edu)
Email Dr. Amro Hassanein (ahassane@umd.edu) to inquire about student discounts, remote access link, sponsorships, or any additional questions.

