

What's Right? Making decisions in patient care

EBP, CPRs, guidelines, PubMed, info coming at you right and left? Do you sometimes feel this information flow is actually interfering with your own good judgment and your ability to work with your patients to help them meet their goals? This presentation will help you gain some control over that information flow and putting it in context with clinical judgment and patient centered care.

Speaker: Laurita Hack PT, DPT, MBA, PhD, FAPTA
Date: September 4, 2014
Time: 4:00 to 9:00 PM
Location: MossRehab, 60 Township Line Road, Elkins Park, PA 19027
Target Audience: PTs, PTAs, OTs, OTAs and Speech Language Pathologists
4.0 Contact Hours 0.40 CEUs
Cost: $40.00 Includes light meal
Contact Person: Sheila Wallace 215-663-6457 WallacSh@einstein.edu

Course Objectives: Upon conclusion the participant will be:

- Describe the three elements of evidence based practice and identify the value of each element in integrated patient care
- Identify typical errors they make in their own clinical decision making
- Recognize at least 3 ways to learn about and respect patient values and circumstances
- Describe the various sources of evidence from the literature and identify their relative advantages, disadvantages, and utility in practice

Disclosures:

Financial: Laurita Hack received financial compensation from MossRehab for the provision of this lecture.

Nonfinancial: Laurita Hack has no non-financial relationships to disclose.

To register or for more information including agenda and speaker disclosure, visit www.mossrehabconference.com

MossRehab Einstein is approved by the Continuing Education Board of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) to provide continuing education activities in speech-language pathology and audiology. See course information for number of ASHA CEUs, instructional level and content area. ASHA CE Provider approval does not imply endorsement of course content, specific products or clinical procedures.

The assignment of AOTA CEUs does not imply endorsement of specific course content, products, or clinical procedures by AOTA. AOTA Educational level Intermediate, Category 2: Occupational Therapy Process, Category 3: Professional Issues .

This course is offered for 0.40 ASHA CEUs (Intermediate level, Professional area.)

Application submitted to
PA State Board of Physical Therapy for 0.4 CEU's or 4 Contact Hours