Sports Related Injuries of the Hip and Pelvis

Saturday, July 16, 2016

7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Hosted by Moss Sports Rehab and Einstein Sports Medicine

Einstein Medical Center, Gouley Auditorium

5501 Old York Road, Philadelphia, PA 19141

Presentation overview: This advanced level course is designed to improve the knowledge base and expertise of the participant in the evaluation, examination and treatment of individuals who have sustained an injury to the hip and pelvic region. Management of these injuries will be presented across a continuum from the time of injury through return to sport. The course faculty will discuss examination techniques and differential diagnoses of injuries, review images of the hip and pelvic region, discuss rehabilitation considerations/interventions and review functional testing to determine the readiness of an athlete to return to sport.

Program Objectives:

1. Participants will describe examination techniques used to determine the potential pathology to the hip and pelvic region.
2. Participants will select intervention techniques specific to each population and describe the progression of the rehabilitation process.
3. Participants will select appropriate functional tests and interpret the findings to advance the decision-making process for return to sport.

Target Audience: physical therapists, athletic trainers and physicians.

Registration: Registration can be made online at www.MossRehabConference.com, by postal mail to Sheila Wallace, MossRehab, Room 303 West, 60 Township Line Road, Elkins Park, PA 19027 or fax this form to 215-663-6984. Registration deadline is Wednesday, July 13, 2016.
