

A conference for EVERY educator! This first-ever, two-day conference will provide relevant sessions that will strengthen vision, encourage engagement, and call us to action in support of the Whole Child!

Thursday Keynote: Manny Scott

An original Freedom Writer whose story is told in part in the 2007 hit movie Freedom Writers, Manny Scott has energized more than 2 million leaders, educators, volunteers, and students worldwide with his authentic, inspiring messages of hope.

Manny is the founder of Ink International, Inc, an education consulting firm that has empowered millions of people to improve the quality of not only their own lives, but also the lives of those around them. Ink has helped hundreds of organizations raise student achievement and leader effectiveness.

SESSION TOPICS: SCHOOL SAFETY, SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL LEARNING, ENGAGEMENT, HEALTH, SUPPORTING STUDENTS

Friday Morning Keynote: Dave Rendall

During the last fifteen years, David Rendall has spoken to audiences on every inhabited continent. His clients include the US Air Force, Australian Government, and Fortune 500 companies such as AT&T, State Farm Insurance, Ralph Lauren, BASF, and GlaxoSmithKline.

Prior to becoming a speaker, he was a management professor, stand-up comedian and endurance athlete. He also managed nonprofit enterprises that provided employment for people with disabilities. He has more than twenty years of experience leading people and organizations.

Friday Afternoon Keynote: Dr. Joanne S. Avery

Dr. Joanne S. Avery is Superintendent of Anderson School District 4 in Pendleton, South Carolina. For the past 29 years in public education in SC, she has served as a teacher and has held numerous administrative roles. In 2016, under Dr. Avery's leadership, Townville Elementary School was the victim of a fatal school shooting. As a second year superintendent, she had to respond to the magnitude of challenges from immediate response to recovery. She is known for her candidness in telling her story, which really drives home the message of preparedness.
