Symposium on the Future of Veterinary Research Friday 29th March 2019 Royal Veterinary College, Camden Campus

Time	Theme	Speaker	Topic
8:00-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:10	Welcome and opening address
9:10-9:40	Keynote sessions: Tim Skerry Keynote speech:
	Development of	University of	Why vets should do veterinary research	Sheffield	research
9:40-10:10	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	Professor the Lord	Keynote speech:
		Trees	Development of veterinary research
10:10-10:40	Encouraging veterinary	Linda Wooldridge	Experiences of the surgeons to consider a	University of Bristol	STARS and career in research	,	INSPIRE programmes
10:40-11:00		Structured discussion
			•
11:00-11:30	Coffee & structured networking 11:30-12:00	Veterinary clinical &	Alex Clarke	Clinician-led translational research	University of Oxford	research in human medicine
12:00-12:30		Richard Mellanby	Development of University of	veterinary
		Edinburgh	translational
			research
12:30-13:00		Karla Lee	Collaboration
		Royal Veterinary	between veterinary &
		College	human medicine
13:00-14:00	Lunch
13:50-14:20	Supporting veterinary	Lucy Davison	Experiences of research & veterinary	Royal Veterinary	veterinary fellowship
	researchers	College	schemes
14:20-15:05		Structured discussion with survey results and panel from Wellcome Trust (Bruna Galobardes), MRC (Kristina Harrison), Academy of Medical Sciences (Clare McVicker), and David McAllister (BBSRC)
15:05-15:20	Coffee break
15:20-15:50	Collee bleak	Richard Piercy	Balancing clinical 10.20-10.00
		1 - 15:50-16:20
10.00 10.20			_
		1
			. 50001011010
16:20-16:50	Group discussions on future development of veterinary research
16:50-17:10	Closing remarks – Amanda Boag, RCVS
	Networking and poster session
15:50-16:20 16:20-16:50	Closing remarks – Amar	Royal Veterinary College Katarina Kolaric & Richard Mellanby Academy of Medical Sciences University of Edinburgh ture development of ve	specialisation with research Effective mentoring of veterinary researchers