

POVERTY
FREE HALTON

Modest Tinkering or a Clean Slate?

A conversation about the future of income security reform in times of inequality.

Wednesday
April 18th, 2018
7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

.....
Burlington Central Library
Centennial Room
2331 New St.
Burlington, ON

Guest Speaker:

John Stapleton

John Stapleton is a social policy consultant, teacher, and activist. He spent a career in the Government of Ontario working on social policy such as social assistance. John has an Innovations Fellowship with the Metcalf Foundation. Recently, he participated in the income security working group contributing to the Income Security: A Roadmap for Change report.

Visit Open Policy Ontario - www.openpolicyontario.com

Register online:

pfh-incomesecurity.eventbrite.ca

For more information contact:

office@cdhalton.ca

(905) 632-1975; 1(855) 395-8807