

J.D. Myers, II
Market Vice President - Northern Virginia Operations
Cox Communications, Inc.

J.D. Myers, II is the Market Vice President, Northern Virginia Operations for Cox Communications, Inc.

- An industry professional with more than 30 years of industry experience, Mr. Myers is responsible for Cox's day-to-day operations in the company's Northern Virginia service area.

Previous to his current role,

- Mr. Myers was the Vice President of Cox Business Services and led Cox's fastest growing commercial services business division in Northern Virginia; and has previously held the role of the Vice President of Residential & Retail Sales in Virginia.
- He also has held various senior leadership positions in Bell South, General Electric, WorldCom.

He was named by CableFAX

- among the Top 100 Executives in Cable Communications in 2013;
- one of the Most Influential Minorities in Cable in 2012 and in 2011;
- in 2009 he was named on CableFAX Magazine's National List of the Top 35 Regional Executives; and
- in 2008, JD was recognized by CableFAX as one of the Top Minorities Executives in Cable Communications.

JD is

- an active member of the Board of Trustees for the George Mason University Foundation;
- he also serves as Co-Chair on the Cable and Telecommunications Association for Marketing (CTAM) Business Services Council;
- a member of the Board of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the National Association of Minorities in Cable;
- a member of the Board for the Northern Virginia Technology Council;
- a Board member of the Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce in Virginia; and
- he is a veteran, having served in the U.S. Army as a Non-Commissioned Officer.