Assumption of Risk

From Camp of the Hills Waiver and Liability Form

There are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in spending time on a campsite in a rugged environment despite all safety precautions. Related injuries can be severe requiring hospital care and resulting in more lasting residual effects than activities in a safer or indoor environment.

Please know that Camp of the Hills is the location for a summer youth camp and other retreats year round.

Wildlife – Being a Campsite – the camp might be inhabited by wild animals such as mammals, reptiles, and insects, which are not tame, may be dangerous, and unpredictable in nature. These wild animals will be wandering at their will. There are potential consequences such as being bitten.

Activities – Depending on your groups choice of activities, such campsite activities can be dangerous, such as camping, swimming, hiking/nature walks, cooking, and sports. The consequences of these risks could include drowning, falling, getting a concussion, needing stitches, broken bones, or other types of injury or death. The two categories mentioned above and their enumerated consequences are certainly not all inclusive, but mere examples while on the premises. .

Indemnity, Release and Risk Waiver

Waiver of Liability

We do hereby agree to indemnify and hold Cozy Cozy Convos™ and Chase Legacies, and its agents, servants, and/or employees, harmless from any and all damages, claims, expenses, or costs of whatever nature, causes of action, suits, and liability of any kind including attorney fees, court fees, investigative fees, or other types of legal fees for any cause of action to include, but not limited to, theft, injury, or death of any person in our group's use and/or occupancy of the premises or participation in camp programs and facilities. The signer indemnifies against the claims made by the signer, spouse, parents, heirs, administrators, and assigns. Further, this agreement is a Covenant not to sue any parties listed herein.

This waiver applies to all persons attending the Cozy Convos Retreat and remains in effect until the evening of Sunday Nov 6.
