

Speech and Language Therapy career day

Are you interested in becoming a speech and language therapist (SLT)?

Seminars to introduce the profession

Workshops to develop your relevant skills

Case studies about our work

Meet some practising SLTs

Tips on university applications and interviews

Tuesday 17 July, 9am–4pm
Royal Hospital for Neuro-disability

Tickets are £25 and can be booked at sltascareer.eventbrite.co.uk

To find out more, contact Phili Denning at institute@rhn.org.uk or on 020 8780 4500 ext 5140

Royal Hospital for Neuro-disability

Programme

9–9.20am Registration and welcome

9.20–10.15am What is an SLT? Multi-disciplinary working

10.15–11am Introduction to communication disorders

11–11.15am Break (refreshments provided)

11.15am–12pm Introduction to swallowing and dysphagia

12–12.45pm Practical Workshops

12.45–1.30pm Lunch

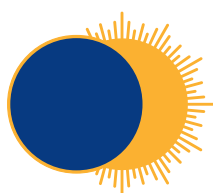

1.30–2.15pm Alternative & Augmentative Communication

2.15–3pm Case Studies

3–3.15pm Break

3.15–4pm Applications, interviews, Q&A

Please note that this programme is provisional and may be subject to change.

Royal Hospital for
Neuro-disability

The Royal Hospital for Neuro-disability West Hill, Putney, London, SW15 3SW
020 8780 4500 | www.rhn.org.uk | info@rhn.org.uk

Follow us at: twitter.com/rhnuk facebook.com/rhnuk instagram.com/rhnuk