

2016 IIDA DESIGN AWARDS

Chris Stulpin joined Tarkett, North America as Senior Vice President of Design in 2015. In his role, Chris oversees design and customer experience for all Tarkett companies. The companies included within the portfolio are: Tandus/Centiva, Desso, Johnsonite and Tarkett Residential. Chris works closely with the design community, IIDA and the global Tarkett design group to further expand Tarkett's established design leadership position.

Chris joins Tarkett from Mohawk Group, where he spent the last twelve years in various product and design roles including Director of Design and Creative Director. Prior to Mohawk, he was a Marketing Consultant within the industry, as well as, for companies such as Barney's New York and Giorgio Armani. Chris' experience also includes the role of Vice President of Marketing with Bentley Mills and Director of Creative Services with Interface.

