

GDAHC 2018 ANNUAL MEETING

KEYNOTE SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Josh Rosenthal, PhD

Co-Founder and Chief Scientific Officer, RowdMap, Inc.

An Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year®, Josh is a serial entrepreneur with multiple successful exits. His work with government data and High-Value Care has won praise from Bloomberg Businessweek and Entrepreneur Magazine and has been featured on Forbes, US News and World Report, and the New England Journal of Medicine's Catalyst.

Josh received a Fulbright to the Sorbonne's interdisciplinary think-tank and has guest lectured at the Institute of Medicine's Health Data Initiative, Robert Wood Johnson's Aligning Forces for Quality, The National Committee for Quality Assurance's Quality Talks, South by Southwest (SXSW), Harvard, Hopkins and MIT, appearing on NPR with the Chief Technology Officer of the United States and at international events with US ambassadors.

He is a participant in the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services CMS Innovators Program and has served as a member of the National Committee on Vital and Health Statistics Data Access and Use, the congressionally mandated body serving the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services on Data, Statistics and Policy. He has also served as a public advisor to the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology and HHS, a member of the Advisory Council for graduate studies in Healthcare Management at American University, and on the Steering Committee for AcademyHealth's Health Datapalooza, as well as teaching special/exceptional education in public elementary schools.

As Co-Founder and Chief Scientific Officer of RowdMap, Josh is proud to join forces with Cotiviti. The combined Cotiviti and RowdMap solutions portfolio targets over $600 billion of the estimated $900 billion+ in healthcare waste, abuse and low-value care.