

Carer Café: Information Sharing Event

Monday 6th June, 12-3pm

Room G.306B Jean McFarlane Building

Series of drop-in sessions hosted by: The Cancer Supportive and Palliative (SUPAC) Research Group
as part of National Carers Week 6th-12th June

12pm-12.30pm / 2-3pm Drop-in sessions for a charity bake sale and to view our carers week information stand

12.30pm-12.45pm Caring for carers: University policy and practical guidance for informal caregivers who work.

Greg Pass, Human Resources Partner.

12.45pm-1pm Carer Support for students, on and off campus
Miriam Amies, Off Campus Students Project Co-ordinator

1-2pm Join us to hear our selection of speakers

Karen Davies: What is a carer? One mum's story.

Prof Gunn Grande: What are carers' main support needs when looking after someone at end of life?

Dr Christine Rowland: Valuing friends' and family support for end of life cancer care; economic costs of informal care-giving.

Prof Alison Wearden: It's more than just tiredness! How families cope with fatigue.

Pete Mellor: Priority setting for end-of-life care: Engaging with local carers and carer groups.

All sessions are open to everyone