

FINAL

FUTURE OF CARBON POLICY AFTER I-1631

November 28, 3-6 pm

Mercer Island Community & Event Center

One minute off I-90 from Island Crest exit, ample free parking 5 minute walk from bus stop (#550 or #554)

Program (3:00pm-5:00pm)

Introduction

5 minutes

Polling Report - Dave Metz, FM3 Research

30 minutes including Q&A

Panel Presentations: Methods of Reducing Carbon

40 minutes

Electric Sector

- Goals and Motivations Behind a 100% Clean Standard - Kelly Hall, Washington Policy Manager, Climate Solutions
- Net-Zero Electricity Standard and Electrification Opportunities - Chris Roden, General Manager Lewis County PUD and Member of Public Generating Pool

Transportation

- Incentivizing Congestion Relief and the Future of Automated Connected, Electric and Shared Vehicles - Scott Kuznicki, Director of Safety and Mobility Technology Solutions at TranspoGroup
- Opportunities for BioFuels and Role of Low Carbon Fuel Standard - Kent Hartwig, Sr. Manager at Renewable Energy Group

Sequestration

- Role of Forestry and Sequestration Opportunities - Edie Sonne Hall, Three Trees Consulting

Research & Development

- Success Stories from the Washington State Clean Energy Fund - Tom Ranken, President & CEO of the Clean Tech Alliance

Policymaker Panel: Where To Next

30 minutes including Q&A

- Rep. Gael Tarleton, House of Representatives
- Rep. JT Wilcox, House Minority Leader
- Chris Davis, Office of Governor Inslee [Invited]
- Rep. Jake Fey, House of Representatives [Invited]

Closing Comments

5 minutes

Social Hour (5:00pm-6:00pm)

Oyster Bar (Courtesy of Taylor Shellfish)

Light appetizers and beverages (Beer courtesy of Fremont Brewing)

Event Contact: David Giuliani, David@LowCarbonProsperity.org, 206-465-6852