In the event that a photographer is present at Marrickville Library and History events, I understand that at this event or related activities I may be photographed or filmed. If I do not wish to be photographed or filmed, I will make myself known to staff so that my likeness cannot be captured at this event.

Photographs and/or videos may be published to promote Marrickville Library and History in any of the Marrickville Library and History Services publications and materials (including though not limited to written, electronic or multimedia materials) for distribution anywhere in the world, or the Inner West Council Services publications and materials (including though not limited to written, electronic or multimedia materials), for educational, promotional or reporting purposes.

When giving your permission you should be aware that any information published on the internet is accessible to millions of users from all over the world, that it will be indexed by search engines and that it may be copied and used by any web user. This means that once the photograph is published, Marrickville Library and History Services we will have no control over its subsequent use and disclosure.

You also acknowledge that you are not entitled to any remuneration, royalties or any other payment from the Inner West Council in respect of the use by the Marrickville Library and History Services of the photographs and/or videos.
