

HUMANITIES AND THE LEGACY OF RACE & ETHNICITY IN THE UNITED STATES

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 2017
CHAMINADE UNIVERSITY OF HONOLULU
HENRY HALL 207

The Humanities and the Legacy of Race and Ethnicity in the United States and in Hawai'i workshop will be centered on addressing topics of civil rights and racism in the classroom.

This workshop will assist teachers with navigating through these sensitive topics to assist with critical thinking and providing opportunities for students to see the relevance of these complex topics stemming from past U.S. history and how this affects the present and their own lives.

This workshop is geared towards U.S. History, Language Arts teachers as well as teachers of Modern History of Hawai'i. Classroom techniques will be discussed as it relates to the topics of race and ethnicity in correlation to the DOE standards.

Travel stipends are available for neighbor island teachers. Questions, please contact Lisa Yamaki at lyamaki@hihumanities.org or (808) 732-5402 x. 2
